Valentine's Day is just around the corner and we are sure that you must be gearing up with gifts and promises to impress your loved one. However, there is

Valentine's Day which is celebrated on February 14 every year around the world with much love and fanfare is a day dedicated to professing love to your valentine and also to your family and friends.

However, the Valentine's Day perfect gift is a very elusive and difficult problem to sort and many a time people end up buying things that do not convey their feelings. So here we have made a list of some of the different, unique and 'hatke' gifts that you can give to your Valentine on February 14, 2019.

For women who love accessories: In the African language Tekè "Samboue" means "Successful Woman". What better wish for the Valentine's day for your woman? The Samboue brand comes from the story of two women, and is dedicated to women.

Alice and Stephanie, are both graduates and with a passion for art. From this passion comes the idea of creating bags merging African and Italian culture to create unique fashion accessories for beauty and originality.

The Spring Summer 2019 Collection is inspired by the colors of the Congolese land typical of the fabrics of the Kuba people, which are made from woven raffia and characterized vegetable dyes. This collection also derives from an accurate chromatic research to give life to accessories in orange, tundra and sand colors.

If you want to give something original, you can go to the small Atelier outside the box of Sonja Tagliavini, la Cucitoria, in via Disciplini in the historic center of Milan. A living room full of clothes and fabrics, where Sonja welcomes customers.

Near to a mini-laboratory in which you are a proven experience, they realize by hand the creations of the designer under his direct supervision. Sonja creates essential, linear, very refined garments for classy women of all ages.

Erica Iodice Milano is Prêt à Couture brand founded by Erica Iodice in 2016. Young and enterprising, Erica Iodice is a fashion designer who has made her dreams into a true entrepreneurial reality: designing dresses for women with an passionate and elegant personality. Growing up among clothes,, bags and accessories from her mother's boutique Erica decided to take the path to turn this passion into a business. The pursuit of excellence, the sartorial quality, the renowned Made in Italy is what distinguishes Erica Iodice Milano.

Amaze a person with Ricerca a Wunderkammer in the heart of Brera, is even easier, perhaps accompanying his wife in the "room of wonders" born in 2008 from the meeting of Gabriella and Donatella Maveri with the architect and painter Antonio Casalino.

The showroom located inside Spazio Cernaia, an exclusive building dated around 1880 with white and gray horizontal stripes that imitate the ancient Tuscan and Lombard gothic structures, houses period pieces and contemporary design objects. "Ricerca " does not want to be an antique showroom: it aims at selling unique and exclusive pieces sought after by the three partners in unusual and little known places.

YNOT? and NICOLI, propose numerous 2019 summer season must-haves to declare their love on the occasion of the party of lovers. From the red passion leather bag for the most sentimental, to the patent leather pouch for real fashion addicts who can never give up the latest seasonal trend. And again, beauty and handbag from ironic prints and writings, an original idea for those who are single... because love should be celebrated even without a partner next to it.

Men, no fear of falling into the trivial, the jewels are always very welcome, certainly not everyone can afford diamonds such as those flaunted by the Princesses' rings, but certainly based on the budget there is no shortage of alternative proposals.

Love exists, and there is "feeling loved". The first is an idea, the second is something that makes you feel and experience the world in a totally different and new way.

Pandora for this year's collection, wanted to focus on feeling loved. "Loved" is a fundamental word that reinforces the traditional concept of "love" and that this year will be the protagonist for Valentine's Day.

The meaning of "loved" is inclusive, tangible, it is something you can try. The word appears written in many of the creations of this collection in positions that are not always obvious, rather often it is inserted in secret and personal points, and reminds us that the only strongest feeling of loving is to be loved.

Giving a perfume to a woman is never easy, but with some items you always go on the safe side, to celebrate a rose-scented Valentine's Day flower that contains the meaning of love, giving your own a Rose SéLavy fragrance.

For him: If the gift for the partner consists of a romantic dinner, a relaxing day at the spa or a fun outing, perfect outfits and underwear (for him and for her) can not miss.

For Valentine's Day, Ragno thinks of the green couple thanks to the underwear and sleepwear proposals by BioCotton, a high sustainability line made of certified organic cotton Gots (Global Organic Textile Standard) that ensures maximum commitment in choosing the raw material, avoiding the exploitation of people during harvesting and processing, in the attention paid to the entire production process and in full compliance with international certifications in the dyeing phase. An act of love to be celebrated even in the day ... of love!

Valentine's Day is all about love for oneself. What better way to spoil yourself than with the Sweet Tendril collection by Wolford? His delicate embroidery on ultra-thin tulle is the only thing he judges good enough, honey.

You can give to your own or give yourself a light bralette in tulle with a romantic floral effect harmoniously combined with transparent briefs and socks with an extremely delicate fabric.

There are lovers, who prefer to celebrate love with their greatest jewel: children. For the party of lovers the Maison Tuc tuc offers a modern and street line: dresses with hearts, reversible sequins, prints and lots of roses for the most romantic little girls and the classic red color combined with denim for the most sporty.

The Tattoo line, for next spring summer, allows you to celebrate a beautiful Valentine's Day in any situation: elegant for an outing with mum and dad or casual to spend the day with friends, because love is great for all ages.
